Colad Sanding Disc Dispenser - 150 mm

Efficiently organize your 150 mm sanding discs in a convenient way!

The Colad Sanding Disc Dispenser 150 mm, combines smart design with practical functionality, making it the ideal solution for a well-organized and efficient workspace. The compact dispenser offers surprising storage capacity. It is designed to hold one box of 150 mm sanding discs, but thanks to the practical notch at the front, it is equally suited for storing loose sanding discs. This means all your discs are neatly within reach, allowing you to work faster and more efficiently.

The Sanding Disk Dispenser 150 mm delivers a significant improvement in how you store and organize your sanding discs. It not only keeps your workspace tidy but also saves time, reduces costs, and minimizes frustration. Finished in sleek RAL7005, this dispenser integrates seamlessly into the Colad grid system, fitting perfectly into your existing storage setup.

This dispenser is the ultimate solution for a streamlined, professional workspace.
Upgrade your workshop and experience the difference organized storage can make!
